Mr. SHERMAN (Rep., Obio) said that the provision having been adopted by both Houses, he supposed he ought to vote for its proper enrollment, but he felt bound to say it had been adopted without proper consideration; that in his judgment it was in direct conflict with the law of last year, and would work marked injury to the public acryice.

the District of Columbia, or in the adioming counties of Maryland and Virginia; which was adopted.

THE ADJOURNAEST QUESTION.

Mr. LAWRENCE (Rep., Ohio) effered a resolution, providing that the concurrent resolution by which the final adjournment of Congress was fixed for Friday next, and which is now pending before the Senate, be recalled for further consideration, and that a message he sent to the Senate requesting the return of the same. He proceeded to state that the bills now before the Reconstruction Committee are bills that ought to be acted on at the present session. The reconstruction of Mississippi, Texas, and Virginia, and some legislation for Georgia, were undoubtedly necessary, and it would be impossible to perfect that legislation if Congress were to adjourn next Friday. There were other matters of importance before Congress which ought to be attended to within that time.

Mr. BUTLER (Rep., Mass.) agreed with the gentlemen from Ohio (Mr. Lawrence) that there was necessary legislation to be acted upon which could not be perfected between this and Friday. The Indian Appropriation bill had not been considered by the Senate, and there was various business which required the attention of Congress.

Mr. DAWES (Rep., Mass.), chairman of the Committee, on Appropriations, said: I hope this resolution will not prevall. It seems to me we are making arrangements in this way for a long session, which will run us into the hot months of the Summer. I think it were better that we had adjourned at the end of the first week of this session rather than adjourn next Friday, but I think it were worse than all if we put off the day of final adjournment. There is nothing in the way of our adjournment next Friday is we will address ourselves to such legislation as is absolutely necessary, and finish it off before next Friday.

Mr. BROOKS (Dem., N. Y.) agreed with the Chairman

ession in favor of various measures.

Mr. BUTLER (Rep., Mass.) said if he shared the opinion f his colleague that it would have been better had. Congress not met at all or the 4th of March, he should also be of the opinion that it had better adjourn without doing anything. The one myslved the other. Things had happened once which perhaps might have led him (Butler) to think it were better that Congress were not here at all; but he did not know that anything had happened which should lead his colleague to think so. Being here, however, he must insist that Congress renain in session. There were three States in an unreconstructed condition.

Mr. LAWRENCE (Rep., Ohno)—Four?

Mr. BUTLER.—Four. And all of them States where a man's life is not safe; where the elergyman is shot down as he performs the marriage sacrament, and where men are taken out of jail and hanged and shot, and we are asked to go home now and leave the country in that condition, without any laws to meet the case. We are paid by the year, and we are very anxious to get away. We are bound to stay here just as much as though we were not paid by the year. ress not met at all on the 4th of March, he should also are bound to stay here just as much as though we were not paid by the year.

Mr. DAWES inquired whether the offices in the unreconstructed States were not to be filled by the commanding generals, and whether it was not just as well to held those States under military rule as to bring them into representation in the manner and under the unfortunate circumstances that Georgia had been brought in. Had not his colleague learned that the mistake then was in making too much haste, and had his colleague felt that the country could not exist unless Congress continued in perpetual session.

any election for members or delegates to Congress all voles cast for any person ineligible to office under the Fourteenth Article of the Amendment of the Coustitution, shall be null and void, and that the person having the highest number of votes cast for persons eligible to office, shall be the Representative or Delegate. He stated that the bill had the approval of the Committee of Elections.

Mr. ELDRIDGE (Dem., Wis.) asked Mr. Paine whether he intended to force that bill through the House without any discussion.

Mr. PAINE said that under the motion he was not at liberty to discuss?

Mr. BURR (Dem., III.), a member of the Committee on Elections, asked whether he could not have the opportunity of stafing the views of the minority.

Mr. PAINE said he would be glad to have the bill discussed, but under a motion to suspend the rules he had no control of the subject.

Mr. BURR auggested thathe could withhold the motion, Mr. ELDRIDGE moved that the House adjourn. Negstived—yeas 38, nays 112.

At the suggestion of Mr. BURR the bill was introduced and made the special order for Wednesday next.

REMARKS.—Again we have the light total of 5,137 cattle, of which 2,308 were on sale to-day. After the close this day week there was a lively trade at One-hundredth-st, with 1,596 cattle on sale. The demand was good, and holders were able to advance fully 4c.on Monday's rates, selling off clean. The average quality was good, and one or two of the finest droves averaged close upon 17c, the tops bringing 17gc. $\Psi$ is readily. There were 63 cattle at Coneminghay, and 139 at West End, on the following Friday, and the market was equally good, only the cattle were not so good; hence they brought less money, nothing going above 17c. There is scarcely as strong a feeling to-day, but about all the stock has been disposed of at full prices, the average being 5 to 5c. above the rates of this day week. It is certain that some lots were sold to-day at 16c. which were little if any superior to those sold a week ago at 15c. The demand was notive, and nearly all were sold. No really extra droves were on sale, and probably less than 25 head reached 174c. $\Psi$

No really extra droves were on sale, and probably less than 25 head reached 17½. $\psi$ to Good fat cattle of 7½ cwt. were selling at 16½ $\psi$17c. There was a wide range of quality, several lots approaching the scallawag order. At Communipaw, with 1,250 head in the pards, there was a good degree of life to the range of the control of the stock, tops reaching 17c., and in a single histance, 17½c. There were one or two mean lots on sale which run down to 12% 16c. The West End yards contained 576 medium to thin cattle, and with a fair show of buyers, all were sold as noted below. At One-hundredth-st. 572 head were received for to-day's market, but hayers were scarce, and holders rated the market lower than on Wednesday.

From reports of stock on the way it is anticipated that arrivals will be large by next Wednesday. As Lout draws to a close, more beef will be wanted; but it is quite possible to therease the receipts faster than the improvement in the demand.

to a close, more beef will be wanted; but it is quite possible to increase the receipts faster than the improvement in the demand.

MILCH COWS—The demand is not very brisk just now, and some cows remain unsoid, though the receipts are less than last week. Common cows go off slowly, a lot of them selling at $50.2875 cach, with a few quite poor still lower. Fair to good milkers, inbuilk, bring $20.2800, while the best selected cows, sold singly, run up to $100.28110, with one at $115. The milkimen have had a good demand for their dry cows, and are selling them off, but are not stocking up again, as usual, particularly those in the limits of New-York and Brooklyn. The Health Board object to populous cow stables in the edg.

VEAL CALVES—Receipts scarceity vary from last week, and there is no change in the market. An improvement in beef prevents what other wise would have been a decline in caives. They sell from 10c. to 12c., according as small and poor, or good size and fat. The poorest caives are sent in ready dressed, which accounts for our quoting them below live ones. Hog-dressed caives are selling at 14.216c., if medium to good, and 17c. for a small number of the fluest. Bobs range from Sc. to 12c., according as very small and young, or of more age. So many have been selzed by the police that fewer very young caives are sent here for sale—some of the decirs will not receive them, not chosing to carry on a contrahand trade. SHEEP—Receipts 21.162, or 581 more than last week. The market continued steady and numbers will not receive them, not chosing to carry on a contrahand trade. THE PASSENGERS NOT CONVALESCING-ALLEGED BRIBERY BY THE OWNERS OF THE JAMES

The majority of the fever passengers of the emigrant ship James Foster, jr., who have been placed in hospital at Ward's Island, have not been improving, but are dying off at the rate of two each day. The latest deaths reported from Ward's Island hospital at but are dying off at the rate of two each day. The latest deaths reported from Ward's Island hospital at Castle Garden, yesterday, were the following: Mary Lerster, 40 years of age, a native of Ireland, typhoid fever; Cornelia Edwards, a child of English parents, chronic diarrhea; Patrick Feeney, aged 36, Ireland, typhoid fever, and Elion Brooks, 6 months, chronic diarrhea. A suit has been commenced by Mr. Geo. Patenham Smith, a Wall-st, solicitor, in behalf of James Allen, Peter Schoolar, Patrick Kaveney, John Foster, and Bartholomew Tobin, passengers of the James Foster, in, and they have recently been giving testimony before Assistant District-Attorney Harris. One of the complainants, in stating his case to his solicitor, Mr. Smith, aleged that he had been effered a small amount of money about $15) as a supplement to his claim for damages by the consignees, Marshall & Co., if he would withdraw his case. Mr. Smith intends to institute a suit subsequently in behalf of all the passengers who have been maitreated. Yesterday the above-named complainants were before Mr. B. F. Tracy, District-Attorney of Brooklyn, making formal complaint against the first mate, Carpenter, and boatswalin of the James Foster, jr. Later in the day they applied to Mr. Casserly, Superintendent of Castle Garden, for a change of clothing and were supplied. The indictments against the parties complained of will be presented to the Grand Jury the first opportunity, and if a true bill is found their trial will immediately follow.

The regular meeting of the Board of Health was held yesterday afternoon. Mr. Lincoin presided Orders were issued to proceed against the owners and lessees of 165 dilapidated tenement-houses, and 41 suits directed against persons who have not complied with the sanitary regulations of the Board. It was then resolved to enforce the regulation with regard to dogs, that those which have contracted contagion he immediately killed. The communication of the Assembly inquiring whether the Board of Health had directed the transfer to Ward's Island of the passenger patients of the fever-ship James Foster, jr., and whether this Board intends to establish a quarantine there for the detention of alien passengers, was submitted. The Board directed their Secretary to reply that they had not directed the transfer to Ward's Island or elsewhere of any of the said passengers, nor had they entertained the question of establishing a quarantine on the island. A report was received from the Sanitary Superintendent, showing that the diseased pork—208 pigs, consigned to Mr. Reid of New-York, seized in transituhad been converted into fat for mechanical purposes. In regard to the Metropolitan Gas Company, it appeared that the Company is about adopting an inoffensive process of manufacturing their gas, and, consequently, the Board suspended action for two weeks.
